Hello and Happy New Year!

As we step into a fresh chapter, I'm reminded of the beauty and joy that comes with helping clients bring their visions to life. Whether it's a dream wedding, a corporate milestone, or an intimate celebration, my passion lies in making every detail unforgettable.

Here's to a year of love, creativity, and extraordinary events.

I look forward to helping you create memories that will last a lifetime!

Warmly,

Tamesha Kinloch-Carter

Chief Planner, FMTY Weddings & Events

Event Planning Tip of the Month:

SET YOUR INTENTIONS

January is all about setting goals, and this applies to event planning too! Whether you're planning a wedding, corporate event, or special celebration, take time to define your vision:

- What atmosphere do you want to create?
- What's your ideal guest experience?
- What's your budget and timeline?

Starting with clear intentions will set the tone for a successful planning process and a memorable event.

What's New at FMTY Weddings & Events

This year, we're introducing new services, collaborations, and exciting blog content to inspire your event planning journey. Be on the lookout for:

- Our Spring Blog Series: Featuring fresh ideas for seasonal weddings and events.
- Behind-the-Scenes Features: A look at how we make event magic happen.
- Special Offers: Exclusive discounts and packages to kick off the year.

Introducing Our New Service: Event Vision Strategy Sessions

WE HAVE JUST RELEASED A NEW SERVICE.

At FMTY Weddings & Events, we're excited to introduce our newest offering:

Event Vision Strategy Sessions! Perfect for clients who need guidance and direction in planning their events but don't necessarily require full execution services, this personalized session will set you on the path to success. And for those hosting weddings or corporate events, we're here to see your event through from beginning to end if desired.
